Ensure the longevity and optimal performance of your heat press machine with the GIZMIX Heat Press Cover. Designed to safeguard your equipment from scratches, adhesive residues, and ink stains, this cover is an essential accessory for both hobbyists and professionals engaged in sublimation and heat transfer projects.

Available Sizes

To accommodate various heat press machines, the GIZMIX Heat Press Cover is available in the following sizes:

- 14.9" x 14.9"
- 15.7" x 19.6"
- 15.7" x 23.6"

These sizes are suitable for heat press machines measuring 15" x 15", 16" x 20", and 16" x 24", respectively. Ensure you select the size that best fits your equipment for optimal protection.

Why Choose a Teflon Cover Sheet?

Utilizing a Teflon cover sheet during heat pressing offers multiple benefits:

- Protects Your Equipment: Prevents ink and adhesive residues from contaminating your heat press platens, reducing the need for frequent cleaning.

- Ensures Consistent Results: Maintains even heat distribution and prevents the transfer paper from shifting, reducing the risk of ghosting effects.
 - Enhances Durability: The non-stick surface minimizes wear and tear on your equipment, extending its lifespan.

Feature

High-Quality Construction: Crafted from premium Teflon-coated fiberglass, the cover offers exceptional heat resistance. The elastic polyester fabric backing ensures a snug fit, making it easy to apply and remove.

Superior Heat Resistance: With the capability to withstand temperatures up to 260°C (500°F), this cover effectively facilitates heat transfer processes, contributing to the durability of your heat press machine.

Effortless Maintenance: Featuring a non-stick surface, the cover simplifies cleanup. A quick wipe with a damp cloth removes residues, saving you time and effort.

Comprehensive Protection: The reusable cover shields both the upper and lower platens from scratches, adhesive buildup, ink stains, and other contaminants, ensuring consistent and high-quality results.
